Hi all,

BogSem is fast approaching, the once a year opportunity for youth movement leaders from around Australia and New Zealand to come together, share ideas, learn, get skills, be inspired and generally have an all-round, all-out good time. In short, three days and three nights of intensive Jewish, Zionist, spiritual goodness. The theme for 2011: Beyond the Pale – what do you want yourself, your movement and your community to be, even if (and especially if) is outside the box of conventional thinking.

This year BogSem will kick off at 8:30 pm on Thursday 11 and wrap up by 2:30 pm on Sunday 14 August, and will take place at various locations in and around Caulfield, aka “the Ghetto”, Melbourne. Registration for the seminar will be online and will open in the coming months, so keep your ear to the ground and your eye on the AZYC website www.azyc.com.au.

Luckily, we have managed to keep the price of the seminar at a low, low 100 AUD and, like in previous years, the AZYC will reimburse leaders for most of their travel expenses. Bogrim from each city will be reimbursed up to the amounts below. Figures are based on today’s cheapest airfares to and from Tullamarine Airport, which will almost inevitably go up, so book your flights ASAP to make sure that you are not left out of pocket.

- Adelaide: $130
- Auckland: $350
- Brisbane: $180
- Christchurch: $300
- Perth: $320
- Sydney: $140
- Wellington: $400

Please note that all amounts are in AUD, and that reimbursement will only be made after the seminar conditional on bogrim actually attending. Once you have booked your flights, you must email the receipt to the AZYC’s Gizbar Sam Bookman (keseef@azyc.com.au) to receive your hard-earned money back.

Lastly, if you need additional financial assistance, limited subsidies can be arranged through Sam on (+64) 21 115 4323 or at the email above. The deadline to apply for subsidies is Sunday 31 July. All bogrim who apply will be informed about their allocation by Thursday 4 August.

Hope to see you there,

Simon Green
